

Spot the State

On the lookout for license plates.

How many states can you spot on your road trip? Check the license plate on every car you see. When you find one you've never seen before, check which state it's from. Then, color in the state on your map to match. When they're all colored in, you win!

